MURDER CHARGES.

No Effort is Made by Those Accused to Avoid Arrest.

Collinsville, Ill., April 12.—The coroner's jury, which investigated the lynching here last Friday of Robert P. Paege, alleged German sympathizer, at the close of the inquest last night recommended that five men be held, charged with murder in connection with the hanging.

If you favor the Kaiser and Hell on earth, don't buy any Liberty Bonds.

END OF GERMANY'S STRING.

People Cannot Bear Financial Strain If War Continues.

New York, April 13.—Germany would have to provide for a war debt of about 133,500,000,000 marks if the war should terminate unfavorably to her this summer, Prince Fugger recently declared in the Bavarian Chamber of Deputies, according to German newspapers received here. This, he said, would include 130,000,000,000 marks to meet the short term and long term loans for war requirements and appropriations for the restoration of Eastern Prussia and the German colonies. It included also, he said, 3,500,000,000 marks to reimburse German creditors abroad.

Prince Fugger estimated that 19,600,000,000 marks would be required to meet the annual expenses and said that this was four times the sum required for that purpose in peace times. The Empire, he said, would be compelled to resort more and more to direct taxation and this would endanger the political independence of the federal states. Proposals to provide the sums necessary involved a war tax amounting to a confiscation of property, declared the Prince.

He asked whether the Government was willing to outline the financial situation of the empire. In reply the Bavarian Finance Minister, Von Breunig said that Germany would need about 10,000,000,000 marks more annually than before the war. He estimated the running expenses at about 14,000,000,000 marks a year if the war did not last very much longer.

To meet these requirements, the Bavarian Finance Minister declared that additional taxation would be necessary this year and that the German people must meet these demands in a spirit of sacrifice.

He explained also that Germany hoped to compel her enemies to pay some of her war debts. "It is of special importance," he said, "to demand from the enemy as far as practicable a corresponding contribution for the reduction of these burdens. This is so well understood that the repeated emphasis of it may now seem superfluous. To what extent the Imperial Government may make such a demand will depend, of course, on the further development of the military and political situation. Unavoidably heavy as the burdens of the empire must be, it may, nevertheless, be expected that the prosperity which will follow the war will give the German people the means to carry these burdens. The government cannot ignore the necessity of making far reaching demands on all classes of the population if the whole structure of credit is not to be brought to the point of collapse."

GETS FIFTEEN YEARS.

Negro Pleads Guilty and is Sentenced by Court.

Walter Thornton, who was indicted on the first day of the April term of the court for the killing of Allen Perry, near Gainesville, on Sunday, March 31, entered a plea of guilty in the circuit court on Wednesday, and upon such was sentenced by the court to serve fifteen years in the penitentiary.

Thornton and Perry engaged in a fight over a crap game at the home of another negro, George Moore, and the trouble resulted in the shooting and killing of Perry by Thornton. "Tim" or Clifford Thornton, who was indicted at the same time charged with the shooting of Stephen Tyler, was acquitted by the jury empaneled to try the case against him.—Manassas Journal.

BERLIN CITY OF MOURNING.

Inhabitants Wretched at the Duration of The Conflict.

Walter Butterworth, of Philadelphia, who has recently been released and allowed to return to America after having been interned in Germany since the United States entered the war, gives the following statement of conditions in Berlin:

"Berlin is a city of mourning. The Germans are wretched at the duration of the war; the people not in the fighting are starving that those who are may eat.

"Berlin, I say again, is a city of mourning. The people outside the uniform pale all appear to be dressed in black.

"The women are pinched, and emaciated through want and mental distress, whilst the children are anemic and sad.

"To go out for a meal or for shopping in Berlin means the carrying of innumerable tickets. A ticket is needed for every component of a meal. Even the military official I was with had his pockets bulging with cards. The people are sad at heart. They curse the war. It surprised me to see how singularly unpopular the Kaiser was with the working classes.

"Military junkies have the civilians well watched, and have taken precautions against any collective movement of protest. Few are left but the women to organize revolt; even munition workers are as disciplined as the soldiery. Have not most of them had military training under the system of conscription?

"The railway carriages, like the houses in Berlin, had been stripped of all their brass fittings, while the letter-boxes and door-bells had been taken from the houses, the window straps of the carriages had been taken away for other purposes.

"The country appears denuded of men. Refreshment buffets, fruit stalls and newspaper kiosks which abounded on all principal railway stations in Germany were empty. Female labor is everywhere employed, but even then neither women nor children appeared plentiful as one scanned the country."

PREPARE FOR SEA FIGHT.

Germans Rush Munitions, Coal and Men to Naval Bases.

Geneva, Switzerland, April 13.—Great activity reigns at German naval bases, especially at Kiel. Coal and ammunition are being shipped to the fleet in large quantities, according to information received here this morning from a reliable neutral source.

German naval contingents, with heavy guns, were recently recalled from the western front to join the fleets and were replaced by Austrian artillery manned by land forces.

Indications are that a naval raid of great magnitude is about to be attempted.

LIBERTY BONDS.

New Loan Now Close to $750,000,000 Mark.

The $500,000,000 mark was passed in the campaign last night, according to a statement by Treasury officials. With pledges reckoned, it was stated, the total for the loan is now close to $750,000,000.

A total of $451,744,000 was reported by the Federal reserve banks for the close of business on Thursday, with the Minneapolis district excluded. The campaign in that district will not get under way until April 15, it was stated.

WITHDRAWS REPORT.

Townsend Tells Senate Committee Exceeded Authority.

Senator Townsend yesterday withdrew the favorable report which he had filed in the Senate on the Sheppard resolution to make the Reed bone-dry amendment applicable to the District of Columbia. A subcommittee of the Senate postoffice committee authorized the report on the assumption that it had the authority from the full committee.

"I am now informed," said Senator Townsend in withdrawing the report, "that it was the province of the subcommittee to report only to the full committee, and that it had no authority to report to the Senate."

There is nothing to indicate when the full committee will report, Senator Sheppard now has two District bone-dry resolutions pending before the Senate, the other one being before the Senate District committee.

"The Tenth Case"

Probably no man was ever wounded in a stranger situation than Sanford King in the new World-Picture Brady-Made, "The Tenth Case." King does a strange thing to help his life-long friend, Mrs. Claudia Landis, and he is wounded in the doing of it. But his efforts have the desired results. This strange situation is one of the many fascinating things seen in this new picture in which June Elvidge is starred in the role of Mrs. Landis.
